

COMMUNITY BANK OF SMITH COUNTY HONORS TOP AREA STUDENTS

CARTHAGE, TENN - Community Bank of Smith County celebrated the academic success of area high school students during a Top 10 luncheon on March 26, honoring seniors from Smith County High School and Gordonsville High School.

The luncheon at the bank's Carthage office was provided for the top 10 students in each school's 2010 graduating class. Attending the luncheon from Smith County High School were Hannah Bush, Lauren Cassity, Preslie Dickerson, Beth Elrod, Autumn Fields, Jennifer Kibbey, Emily Nesbitt, Matthew Nuss, Evan West and Nikki White.

Luncheon honorees from Gordonsville High School included Matt Bane, Kurt Bass, Andrea Brys, Kelsey Dillingham, Gabby King, Amanda Sullivan, Lizzie Underwood, Shawn Webster and Sam Wright, as well as Nicole Murphy, who was unable to attend.

CBSC representatives Jason Hall and Stephen Russell joined Director of Schools Roger Lewis, Gordonsville High School Principal Mark Medley, Smith County High School Principal Jimmy Maynard and other faculty members from the two schools in recognizing the students' academic accomplishments.
