Mackinac Island

Friday, June 22 – Wednesday, June 27, 2012

Day 1 Dearborn (Friday)

Sit back and relax as we travel to Dearborn, where we have reservations for the night. Michigan is a vacationland for thousands each year. We will stay in Michigan for the next four nights.

Day 2 Greenfield Village/Ford Museum (Saturday)

It is a short drive from our accommodations to the Ford Museum and Greenfield Village. Your admission is good for both attractions. The 93-acre complex serves as a monument to American innovation and enterprise. Collections explore nearly 3 centuries of communications, transportation, industry, agriculture and domestic life.

This afternoon we'll travel to Frankenmuth, a city with Bavarian hospitality, and dinner is included tonight. CB,D

Day 3 Tour/Bronner's (Sunday)

Our local guide will take us on a tour of Frankenmuth, settled by Lutheran missionaries from Germany. As we take the tour, we'll hear more of the history and culture. Afterward, our visit wouldn't be complete without a stop at Bronner's Christmas Store, where it is always Christmas. Tonight we'll continue to Mackinaw City and board a ferry for the ride over to Mackinac Island, and we'll spend the next two nights there at the Grand Hotel. CB,D

Day 4 Carriage Tour (Monday)

No tour to the island would be complete without a carriage tour. In this special place the stunning Victorian architecture, horse drawn carriages, majestic views and historic ambiance make Mackinac Island a place to remember. Our tour ends in the downtown area, where you can enjoy the shops and maybe sample some fudge. We have reservations once again tonight at the elegant Grand Hotel, and dinner is included. B,D

Day 5 Ft. Wayne (Tuesday)

This morning after breakfast it is time to say goodbye to this perfect getaway and return by ferry to the mainland. Our motor coach will take us south so we can begin our return trip. B
